The Chief Commissioner of Mysore

The humble petition of Annatia the Archik of the Ramadurga temple of Baranagattah in the Anebull Taluk.

Humbly Sheweth.

That a portion of the Inam land belonging to the temple has been usurped by one Srinivasia

That your petitioner having complained of this to the Amildar in 76 the latter ordered the land in question to be made over to petitioner, but he was not put in possion of the land. Inasmuch upon your petitioner the Deputy Commissioner who declared the possession by Srinivasia, of the land as a and ordered a notice to be to the said person to dispossess

Your petitioner addressed the Chief Comr who issued an endorsement saying that the case would be dealt with according to the new rules published in Nov. 77 - with the endorsmen the petitioner addressed again the Deputy Comr who having caused the case to be investigate by the Amildar decided that as the individual referred to had possessed improperly the land in question should be taken out summarily and the land be made over to the temple. and gave an endorst thereon to that effect.
Accordingly the Amildar came & acted to the decision but after all the land was not made over to the temple the Amildar being partial to the said person - the

It has been confirmed by the Inam departt to the temple. neither the archaka nor any body has any claim over the land such being the case as Srinivasie has irregularly taken into his possession the land, the right of archaka has come to the petitioner his ancestors.

Beyo therefore that your honor will kindly call for the papers and give the redress - the amildar has done much injustice to the petr - The Deputy Comr has given the petitioner no as yet.
